JENNA

As a new international student at UVic, Jenna wants a gentle, campus-aware guide that helps her navigate resources and take her first steps in Canada so she feels supported instead of lost.

JAMES

As a first-year UVic student struggling academically and socially, James wants a gentle, campus-aware guide that gives clear study steps and low-pressure ways to connect so he can catch up and feel less alone.

YOU

Hey Lantern, I'm falling behind in my classes and I don't really understand what professors expect. I also want to make friends but club days feel overwhelming. Can you help me with a small plan?

LANTERN

I'm so sorry you're feeling buried under it all—it's a lot to handle!

For the classes, maybe try picking just one syllabus to look over today; usually, the "Learning Outcomes" section is the secret key to what the prof actually cares about. As for friends, those club days are a total zoo, so why not just browse the UVSS club list online from the comfort of your room instead?
